By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For recalling and prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States; for giving Encouragement to Seamen and Able-bodied Landmen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; and for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves.

GEORGE R.

WHereas We are informed that great Numbers of Mariners and Seafaring Men, Our natural-born Subjects, are in the Service of divers Foreign Princes and States, to the Prejudice of Our Kingdom: And whereas Our Service doth at this Time require a speedy Supply of Seamen and Seafaring Men to man such of Our Ships as are now ready to be commissioned: We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby strictly charge and command all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever and wheresoever, (being Our natural-born Subjects) who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or do serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel, that forthwith they, and every of them, do (according to their known and bounden Duty and Allegiance) withdraw themselves, depart from, and quit such Foreign Services, and return home to their native Countries: And farther, We do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, and other Seafaring Men whatsoever, (being Our natural-born Subjects) from entering, and do charge and command them and every of them from henceforth to forbear to enter themselves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, or to serve in any Foreign Ship or Vessel whatsoever, without Our special Licence first had and obtained in that Behalf; to all which We expect due Obedience and exact Conformity. And We do hereby publish and declare, that the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur Our just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for their Contempt according to the utmost Severities of the Law. And We do hereby declare, That if any such Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, Shipwrights, or other Seafaring Men, (being Our Subjects) shall be taken in any Foreign Service by the Turks, Algerines, or any others, they shall not be reclaimed by Us as Subjects of Great Britain. And whereas it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Seamen, Seafaring Men, and Able-bodied Landmen, who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service, We do hereby promise and declare, that all such Able Seamen, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, fit for Our Service, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of September next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or the Chief Officers on board such Tenders as shall be employed for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Five Pounds each Man; and all such Ordinary Seamen, fit for Our Service, who shall so enter themselves as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Two Pounds Ten Shillings each Man as Our Royal Bounty; and that every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who shall voluntarily enter themselves as aforesaid to serve on board any of Our Ships, shall receive, as of Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man; such respective Sums to be paid by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports or Places where the Ships into which they shall be entered shall be, immediately after the Third Muster of such Seamen and Landmen. And We do declare, that the Qualification of the Seamen so entering themselves as aforesaid shall be certified by the Captain, Master and Boatswain of the Ship or Vessel where they shall enter. And for Prevention of any Abuses by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on board any other Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty Money, We do hereby declare and command, that such Seamen or Landmen, belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on board any other of Our said Ships or Vessels, in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be severely punished according to their Demerits. And We do hereby further promise and declare, that a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, shall be paid any Person who shall discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for Our said Service, by any of Our Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 30th Day of September next; the said Rewards to be paid for any Seaman or Seamen, so discovered and taken in and about London, by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, and, at the Out-Ports, by the Naval Officers, (where there are any) and, where there are no Naval Officers, by the Collectors of Our Customs, immediately upon a Certificate being produced to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of Our Navy, Naval Officers, or Collectors respectively, by the Person who may make Discovery of any Seaman or Seamen as aforesaid, certifying his Name, and the Name or Names and Number of Seamen procured in consequence of his Discovery; the said Certificate to be given by such Officer as may take such Seaman or Seamen for Our Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-first Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, in the Twenty-second Year of Our Reign.

St. James's, June 29.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, has been presented to the King by Major Watkin Williams, Representative in Parliament for the Town of Flint, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, most humbly beg Leave to express our inviolable Attachment to your own Sacred Person, and your Illustrious Family; together with the highest Veneration for that noble Constitution of Government, which was established in this Country at the Revolution. With these Sentiments we hope we may be permitted to congratulate your Majesty on our general Deliverance from the late corrupt and rapacious Administration, who could not bear to see your oppressed and faithful Subjects either rich, or happy, or honest.

We feel yet higher Obligations to your Majesty for admitting into your Confidence the honorable Men whose Merit and Character make them to be considered as the sure Friends of the Publick; and who, we doubt not, will call forth the Spirit, the Love, and the Wisdom of the Nation, which are of such essential Consequence to your Majesty's Service; and it is with Delight and Admiration that we behold them supported by your Royal Approbation and Concurrence, in carrying on the great and salutary Work of Œconomy, which we hope will never stop, till an End is put to useless Places, and exhorbitant Salaries; and till the Revenue of the People can no longer be employed to corrupt their Representatives.

May your Majesty long taste the Glory, and enjoy the Benefit of so wise and necessary a Change in your Councils; may the late glorious Success of your Fleets be a Presage of future Victories; and may you live to see your People recover all the Blessings they have lost; and forget all the Disgrace and Misery they have endured.

Thomas Fitzmaurice, Sheriff.

ON the 14th Inſtant, I received Information, that Two French Cutter Privateers were cruizing off Waterford, of which I immediately ſailed in Purſuit. On my getting off that Harbour the 17th, I ſpoke a Fiſhing Boat that had been taken by One of them Five Days before, but had not been heard of ſince; I therefore ſtood to the Weſtward, and at Daylight the next Morning, off Dungarvan, I diſcovered One of them, and, after a Chace of Eleven Hours, took her; ſhe proves to be La Victoire, of 2 Eight and 14 Six Pounders (Six of which ſhe threw overboard during the Chace.) She is a new Cutter, Cutter, Copper Bottom, fails very fast, and had 91 Men, had been from Brest Eighteen Days. The other Cutter, called the Eagle of Dunkirk, of the same Force, has quitted this Coast.
